University of Chicago

• #171, #172— Students, faculty, and staff of the University, including hospital staff, shall ride free, upon displaying a University issued “Chicago Card” (University of Chicago I.D.), University of Chicago hospital identification, or University of Chicago Laboratory School identification. All others shall pay ordinary CTA fares.

• #192— Ordinary CTA fares shall be paid by all riders including University and hospital students, faculty and staff.

All Other Customers

• Pay regular fares and can buy transfers to other CTA services.

Additional notes:

All CTA buses are accessible. For accessibility help or to report concerns at stops, contact CTA Customer Service at transitchicago.com/feedback.

Federal law requires priority seating be designated for seniors and people with disabilities. Please stand up and yield these seats when needed for qualifying riders or when asked.

Schedules and other info in this timetable are subject to change. CTA does not assume responsibility for errors in timetables nor for inconvenience or damage resulting from delays.

Pay close attention to destination signs and announcements when boarding: added service may sometimes be provided over portions of this or any bus route and some trips can end before the furthest terminal on a line depending on service needs or time of day.

Bicycle racks are installed on the front of all CTA buses and are allowed on CTA trains during certain hours. See our Bike & Ride brochure or webpage for help on how to use racks and more.

Know before you go: Get alerts from us by text or e-mail about planned service changes every week or instant alerts for unplanned reroutes and disruptions. Sign up for CTA Updates today at transitchicago.com/updates.
